Embedding Indigenous perspectives across the curriculum

This workshop is a joint initiative in partnership with:

Queensland Indigenous Education Consultative Committee (QIECC)

Dare to Lead, Australian Principals Association Professional Development Council (APAPDC)

Department of Education, Training and the Arts (DETA)

Queensland Catholic Education Commission (QCEC)

Independent Schools Queensland (ISQ)

Queensland Studies Authority (QSA).

Using a common frame of reference, this workshop showcases statewide and local initiatives in the area of embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives within the curriculum.

The workshops aim to establish a shared partnership in building a common vision and focus for best-practice pedagogy and curriculum in Queensland — valuing Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives, knowledges and ways of working.

Who should attend?

- Principals and administrators
- Heads of departments and teachers
- Staff of Learning Engagement Centres
- Regional and school-based Indigenous curriculum support workers

Outline

- Develop knowledges and understanding, and share experiences of embedding Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives within the curriculum
- Apply knowledge of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives within the Essential Learnings to plan for learning and assessment that meets the needs of Indigenous students
- Discuss Indigenous spirituality within the curriculum
- Work in groups to consider student pathways as part of the implementation plan for the Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Studies syllabus
- Network with colleagues from a range of locations to establish and sustain collegial and professional relationships and build partnerships to support the embedding of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspectives within the curriculum
